Sunshine for successful show

By Anders Larsson
anders@pemedia.co.uk

THE decision to delay Honiton Show proved successful, but organisers say they will return to the traditional date next year.

Show secretary Marcelle Connor estimates that 18,000 people came through the gates to the showground on Thursday, August 30th.

Honiton Show is traditionally held on the first Thursday in August, but in July organisers decided to delay this year's showpiece because of constant wet weather.

It proved to be a good decision even though organisers did have a scare when torrential rain hit the showground on Wednesday, August 29th.

But the sun shone on show day, although wellies was the favoured footwear by a large majority of visitors.

When asked if she thought that people were scared away by heavy rain the day before the show, Marcelle said: "No. We have brilliant support.

"It is an agricultural show and you are always going to get a bit of mud.

CHOICES: Gill Seymour, Janet Andrew and Gill Baker manned the Offwell Village Community Shop

"We had approximately 18,000 people here. It is not a record breaker, but on par with other years."

When asked if she was pleased with the decision to delay the show by almost a month, she said: "Yes, but we are going back to the first Thursday in August next year."

The show is organised by The Honiton and District Agricultural Association and makes donations each year to a wide range of local causes. Recipients and amounts for this year will be announced in due course.

Police lose taser cartridge

POLICE have asked the public for help after an officer mislaid a taser cartridge when on patrol in East Devon. The precise location of the mishap has not been revealed, but a constabulary spokesperson said: "Devon and Cornwall Police are cautioning the public about the potential danger from a Taser cartridge (pictured) that was mislaid by a patrol officer on Tuesday night.

"The taser cartridge was mislaid by an officer whilst on patrol during a night shift in east Devon.

"Police advise that there has been no previous reported incidents in the force area of a taser cartridge being discharged without being attached to the taser unit which supplies the electrical charge.

Police said the cartridge contains probes on wires which extend when the device is discharged.

The probes could be inadvertently discharged by a build-up of static if picked up or handled.

Although the potential danger to the public is very low police advise that if found the cartridge should not be tampered with and handed in to the police.

The cartridge is described as being black in colour measuring 2"x 1 ½" with a serial number C31017NX4.

Police ask that if anyone finds the missing cartridge that they either contact police on 101 or hand it in at their nearest police station.

NEWS AT A GLANCE IN EAST DEVON THIS WEEK

AXMINSTER

New information on brutal assault

DETECTIVES have revealed that the scene of an alleged and brutal assault in Axminster is different to the one originally stated.

Police have also issued a renewed witness appeal to the incident, which resulted in a 16-year-old boy needing 34 stitches to his face.

It was originally reported that the incident happened on the footpath between the fire station and Long Ragg Court in the early hours of Saturday, August 11th.

But PC Carly Davies told Pulman's View: "It has come to lightthat the correct location of the assault was at the entrance to the public footpath on Lyme Close at the electrical sub-station."

This footpath leads to Fosseway Close, and PC Davies is keen to speak to anyone who may have made observations in the area around the time of the incident.

She said: "While on the footpath, he was attacked by an unknown male in an unprovoked assault.

"This male then ran off along Lyme Close towards the Police Station after boasting to the victim's friends about what he had just done."

COLYTON

Carnival off to a good start

COLYTON Carnival Week has got off to an excellent start, with £2,703 already raised by the royal party candidates.

The total was announced at Saturday's crowning ceremony in the Town Hall.

Courtney Newton was named Carnival Queen having raised £358. The title of Carnival Princess went to Phoebe Rabjohns who raised £1,320 and Princess Attendant will be Leigha Roberts with £525. This year there will also be a Carnival Prince - Zachariah Brooker who raised £500.

The party were officially crowned by Colyton shopkeeper Tony Hibberd who spoke about the community spirit of the town, adding: "At no time is it more obvious then during Carnival Week."

The newly-crowned youngsters joined Seaton Carnival that evening, coming third place in the carnival royalty section with their "Crowning Glory" float.

From the editor's chair

An extraordinary lady

ONE of the great privileges of being editor of any newspaper is that you come into contact with some incredible people who have lived remarkable lives.

Mieke Miller-Jansen, who lived in Colyton, was one such person.

Pretty as a picture with golden hair, Mieke grew up in Nazi occupied Holland and used her good looks to deflect the German occupiers from the enormous risks she took with her father in sheltering the Jews in Amsterdam.

They suffered great hardships and by the end of the war Mieke was suffering from exhaustion and chronic malnutrition and as a "loyal Dutch citizen" was sent to England – Axminster, in fact – for care and convalescence.

She fell in love with Beer farmer's son Philip Miller, who had served in the RAF, went back to Amsterdam to marry in 1949, returning to England to farm on Colyton Hill for more than 40 years.

Mieke threw herself into the community life of Colyton and district, supporting the town in so many ways, but she never forgot her growing up years in Holland.

In 1995 she was filled with enormous pride when she returned to her homeland for the 50th anniversary of the liberation to be honoured for her work with the Dutch Resistance.

All those who came into contact with Mieke could not fail to be impressed by her indomitable spirit. She was generous funny and forthright, never frightened to speak her mind but always positive.

She died at the end of August and her life extraordinary life will be celebrated at a special service in the parish church on Saturday, September 15th at 12 noon.

A full obituary, compiled by her closest friends in Colyton, appears on page 14.

Philip Evans

SEATON

Residents petition for return of path

RESIDENTS in Old Beer Road joined forces over the weekend in a bid to reopen the footpath, which runs adjacent to the recent landslip by presenting a petition to local councillors.

More than 40 members of the local community came out, complete with placards to greet Councillor Stuart Hughes and Councillor Jim Knight, County Councillor for Seaton Coastal, with a petition in the hope the road can begin to go back to normal.

Over the past few weeks, residents in Seaton and the surrounding area have been signing a petition in the hope that the footpath through Old Beer Road can be opened and people can once again enjoy the walk.

OTTERY St MARY

Radio trial goes well

A TRIAL broadcast has convinced radio pioneers in Ottery St Mary that there is a future for a permanent station in the town.

A two-day trial broadcast was carried out online by Radio Ottery on August 25th and 26th.

Radio Ottery figurehead Oscar Pearson was pleased with the outcome and has pledged to try and keep the momentum alive and make the station a permanent one.

He said: "We had over 1,500 visits to the website and 4,600 on our Facebook page and listeners tuned in from England, Scotland, France, Canada, Cyprus, India, Australia and a wide collection of other countries."

SIDMOUTH

Rotary appeal to support walk

THE SID VALLEY Rotary Club is inviting residents to turn out in 'force' to join them in walking the beautiful Jurassic Heritage Coast and raising money for a local cancer charity.

The Coastal Challenge is now in its eighth year and has raised a total of more than £16,000 to support the work of the FORCE cancer charity.

Last year, the Sid Valley Rotary Club took over the organisation of the Heritage Coast Challenge and raised £23,00. This year they are running it again and are looking for walkers to take on the challenge.

The event takes place over three days and walkers can join for one, two or three days, as they wish. They can even join for part of a day. The Rotary Club will transport them to the start point in a minibus. The minibus will provide support during the day, meeting the walkers at suitable locations to provide refreshments and carry spare kit.

The walk takes place from September 14th to 16th.

Primary school team takes home silver prize

A GROUP of six children from Honiton Primary School have been perfecting their specialist robotics skills.

The group from Year 6 has spent several months constructing and programming Lego 'Mindstorm' robots as part of a robotics club the primary school has been running in order to promote maths and technology.

The project has proved to be exciting and challenging for the group and has provided the children with an opportunity to apply and combine mathematics, engineering, technology and ICT in a problem-solving context.

Funded by Astra Zeneca, the culmination of the project was an exciting Robotics Olympics event in July at the Callington Space Centre at Callington Community College in Cornwall.

Children competed against other primary and secondary schools across the region by programming their robots to perform in Olympic challenges.

Tasks included the flag parade – robot dances to music whilst waving a flag, archery, shot put and 400m.

Two teams from Honiton took part in the event and one of the teams took home silver in the flag parade.

Staff at Honiton Primary School would like to congratulate Ben Radford, Kelsey Pulman, Nathan Boland, Dylan Nicholas, Ethan Pegg and Owen Rew on their achievements within the robotics club.

Bungalow funding is agreed

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

NHS bosses say that capital funding has been agreed for a project that would see The Bungalow at Honiton Hospital become a hub for older people's mental health services.

Devon Partnership NHS Trust recently met with Honiton Older People's Mental Health Stakeholder Group.

After the meeting the trust issued a statement, which also said that it is hoped the unit will reopen at some point next spring.

Honiton town councillor Vernon Whitlock attended the meeting and said: "There is now a high degree of certainty that the plans for the development of The Bungalow will go ahead – and this is obviously good news for everyone concerned.

"It is a valued local resource and none of us wants to lose it.

"However, we are continuing to press the trust for firm details about the timeframe for the refurbishment work to be conducted as we are understandably keen to see the unit reopen as a hub for local mental health services as soon as possible.

"We do know that The Bungalow will become the work-base for mental health staff supporting both adults and older people and that it will provide a range of outpatient services and clinics for both groups.

"As far as older people are concerned, these will include memory services to provide early assessment for people with a possible dementia and education and training groups for their carers and families.

"General mental health assessments for older people will also be provided at The Bungalow, alongside wellbeing and recovery and therapeutic programmes to support people with a range of needs such as anxiety, depression, stress and memory problems.

"At our latest meeting we also discussed the importance of working closely alongside our neighbouring communities and we are looking to expand the stakeholder group to reflect this."

Jacquie Mowbray-Gould, Devon Partnership NHS Trust's managing partner for older people's services commented: "We understand the group's frustration about the delay that has been caused while we have been striving to secure the funding for the redevelopment of The Bungalow.

"We are equally keen to press ahead with the project.

"Capital funding for the development has been agreed and the final details of the financial paperwork are being completed now.

"A suitable contractor then has to be identified and selected through a tender process.

"There are clear regulations surrounding this exercise to ensure value for money and a fair and equitable process, but we will do everything possible to keep delay to a minimum.

"There is a substantial amount of work to be done to the fabric of the building and its IT infrastructure but we anticipate that work on the site will commence no later than November and we are hopeful that the unit will be ready to open next spring."

The Honiton Older People's Mental Health Stakeholder Group includes representatives from health and social care agencies, the local GP practice, carers, community representatives and the voluntary sector.

The local lay representatives are Val Royle, Heather Penwarden, Vernon Whitlock and Alf Boom.

Despite the weather, the fete must go on – in hall

HAWKCHURCH Village Fete went ahead despite poor weather, with stalls taking cover from the rain in the village hall rather than on the playing fields.

Marquees were also set up in the village hall car park to fit in the range of traditional fete stalls and games on Bank Holiday Monday.

Local organisations taking part included Hawkchurch Primary School, the tennis club, the Rotary Club of Axminster with its ShelterBox display, Hawkchurch Ladies Club on the home produce stall and games run by the Dorset ME Support Group.

Hawkchurch Community Shop also borrowed the Uplyme Wheel from organisers of Uplyme Village Fete for the day.

There was many local crafts on offer, as well as a barbecue, teas and refreshments, tombolas, face painting and a grand raffle.

Although much of the outdoor entertainment had to be cancelled, local band COAST set up in the hall and entertained throughout the afternoon.

Xtreme Falconry were also still able to give a display and Aldo the Clow entertained the children.

Based on early indications, the organising committee is confident it has covered the overall costs, despite the poor weather throughout the week, with this year's main beneficiaries being Devon Air Ambulance, Macmillan Cancer Support, Hawkchurch Village Hall and a number of other local causes.

Results from events throughout the week were as follows:

Car Treasure Hunt: 1st Cowling Family; 2nd Christine Bright, Paula and Megan Herbert.

Ferguson Tractor Challenge: 1st Jan Stammer. Teddy Bear's Parachute: 1st Lily Doolin; 2nd Jessica Horricks; 3rd Ruby.

Multimedia room opened for those with learning difficulties

A BRAND new multimedia room has opened at one of Robert Owen Communities (ROC) residential homes near Honiton.

The new facility designed to benefit people across East Devon was opened earlier this month and will enable individuals with communication difficulties and learning disabilities to express themselves in a range of new and innovative ways.

This in turn will allow those using the facilities to tell people about their lives and make decisions in ways that have previously not been possible.

As well as the room offering facilities that allow people to show others what is happening for them, people can also utilise new technology such as Skype for long distance family 'catch ups.'

Leading up to the opening of the multimedia room were three sponsored walks over three days, which helped to raise money for the ongoing costs that the room will produce.

There was also a barbecue, which welcomed all of the parents and friends of the residents at the residential home.

THE new multimedia room

Families mingled together and enjoyed the special occasion of the opening and were thrilled to see the new technology within ROC's service.

Simon Tickner, manager of the residential home in Honiton, said: "I am really pleased that the multimedia room has gained such a positive response.

"I would like to thank the members of the Otter Vale Rotary Club who donated much of their time and funds enabling us to complete this great new addition to the home.

"I am confident that the room will be used to its full potential and will really benefit people with learning disabilities across East Devon."

The multimedia room will become part of customers' everyday lives and will really help them to realise some of their aspirations.

ROC is embedding multi-media into its services so that all people with learning disabilities have the equal opportunities to access new technology and the ability to use it to enhance their lives.

Seaton comes alive for Carnival Week

By Laura Goldsbury-Noy
laura@pemedia.co.uk

SEATON Carnival Week finished with a bang when the grand illuminated procession moved through the town after a spectacular week of events.

The much loved annual carnival week attracts many to the town every year, and organisers say that this year's events didn't disappoint, particularly with the addition of extra events to the programme.

The week began with an open shore fishing competition organised by Honiton Sea Angling Club were 20 brave anglers ignored the terrible weather and came out to compete for the carnival championship.

John Turner returned to the scales with a nice bass of 7lb 10oz and a bull huss of 6lb 10oz, which scored 163 per cent in total. This won John the cash prize of £40 and a further £10 in the pool.

In second spot was Colin Berry of the host club, who recorded a dogfish and bull huss combination which scored 83 per cent - this won Colin £20.

Local Seaton angler Dave Bowyer was in third spot with a single Dogfish of 1lb 12oz; Dave picked up £10 for his fish.

There was a carnival fun day at Seaton Town Hall on Saturday where there were a number of stalls from fresh produce to arts crafts and bric-a-brac to children's activities such as pebble painting and face painting.

This was followed by carnival bingo, also at the town hall.

A crabbing competition on the Sunday welcomed many children to join in the seaside fun, with young member of the British fishing feam, Connor, judging the catches. Prizes were presented to Rose Dack, who came first, Hollie Dack in second and Noah Brown in third.

There was also a classic vehicle show on the esplanade organised by Vic Raskin and a carnival 'songs of praise' at the Jubilee gardens following the carnival crowning.

One new addition to this year's carnival was the Bank Holiday busking competition, where the esplanade was filled with music from local artists. Due to the poor weather over the Bank Holiday, the street fayre was limited, and so although the busking competition had many entries, only three committed to the event.

The best band and overall winner went to brother and sister duo, Ollie and Ellie Harris, also known as Six Days, who then had the chance to perform at the carnival variety night on Friday. Cash prizes also went to Lucas Stone and Simone the singing poet.

Other events in the week included a carnival car treasure hunt, quiz night, murder mystery night by Seaton Drama Club and a dog show.

On the day of the grand carnival procession, another new event drew in crowds when Seaton held its first national crier competition.

People came from all over the country to take part and cry before parading through the square and in the procession itself.

The main procession had the town buzzing with excitement as hundreds lined the streets and people of all ages joined in. Although entries were down, organisers were overwhelmed by the support shown in the town and the many people who had come to watch.

A number of local groups joined in the procession including the 1st Seaton Scouts, Seaton, Beer & District RNLI and the Seaton Royal British Legion. The Seaton Brownies group created costumes over the summer holidays for their 'Brownies in Wonderland' theme with around 30 children in total joining in the crowds in full costume.

The procession welcomed entries from all over East Devon with carnival clubs such as Sid Vale once again stealing the show with their spooky 'Bump in the night' float.

Carnival queens also arrived in full attire to the procession with queens and princesses coming in great numbers from across Devon, but it was Seaton's carnival princesses and queen who stole the show with their 'Year of the Dragon' oriental themed float and beautiful Chinese dresses.

Nunsford Nutters CC also turned heads with their amusing and catchy 'Proper Job' float picking up first prize in the comical section.

Carnival Secretary, Marie Churchill said: "The week has been a great success and my favourite event had to be the dog show on Saturday.

"Thank you to all the supporters and traders around the town, without whom the carnival would not be so successful. The procession was a great night with great music and a high standard of entries.

"I would like to thank Victoria for filling in on the Seaton Carnival royal float and saving the day. Our main beneficiary this year will be the Seaton First Responsers."

If anyone took photos of the procession or carnival week, please send them to seatoncarnival@gmail.com to be entered into the photo competition. The winner will receive a prize and the photo will feature in next year's carnival programme.

Seaton hospital goes solar

SEATON Community Hospital is the first Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust hospital to be fitted with solar panels.

Various dignitaries will gather at the hospital at 1pm on Thursday, September 6th for an official launch party.

The trust's communications manager, Jim Bray, said: "The panels will significantly reduce the hospital's electricity bills and carbon footprint.

"The £27,000 installation costs have been funded entirely by the League of Friends, who have gone outside the box to come up with the idea.

"This is the first solar panel scheme at any of our 18 hospitals across Devon. There aren't many in the country who have done it."

Lions promote their community services

The Seaton and District Lions Club have been raising awareness of the services to the community that they offer.

Promoting a number of services, the Lions hope they can increase the number of people that can benefit from their work, particularly to those with health problems in the area.

A major part of the Lions work comes in the form of their free 'Message in a bottle' scheme- which aims to save lives in a very simple way.

Each person is handed a bottle which is kept in the fridge which contains all medical information which may be useful to a paramedic or someone medically assisting during a time of need.

Alongside the bottle comes two labels, one which is fixed on the front door or entrance to the home and another on the fridge itself.

The idea encourages people to keep their basic personal and medical information in a common place which can easily be found in an emergency at the home and is recognised by medical professionals throughout the UK.

A similar service offered by the Seaton Lions is 'Medic Alert' - a simple but life saving medical ID which bears an internationally recognised emblem and is worn around the neck or wrist to highlight medical conditions.

For those that suffer with conditions such as diabetes or have allergies towards certain drugs such as penicillin or anaesthetics, the tag can give out life saving information when a person may not be able to tell medical professionals themselves.

The foundation is now recognised in 22 countries worldwide and is fast becoming the top way to alert doctors of any major information, as well as providing an on file record of your details accessible 24 hours a day.

Alongside their general health services and like many other Lions groups across the UK, the Seaton and District Lions continue to collect spectacles of every kind across the district.

The group are always looking for donations of old glasses and spectacles, which can then be forwarded to third world countries to areas such as East Africa to aid the partially sited or visually impaired.

Donation bins can be found at all doctors' surgeries in Colyton, Beer and Seaton as well as Bennett and Rogers Opticians in Seaton.

President of the Seaton and District Lions Club, Neil Rutter, said: "We are constantly working hard within the community to improve the health and well being of those in our area.

"We hope that our services to the community can help as many people as we can, and are looking forward to supporting more people in the next year - both individuals and groups in the local area."

Lion David Rickard added: "It is important to remind the public about the things we can offer within the local community, as well as our various charity work abroad and in the UK.

"Recently we collected for the Devon Air Ambulance Trust at Seaton Co-op and raised £183.50.

"We would all like to thank the public for their continuing support."

For more information on the Lions' services, call David Rickard on 01404 41378.

Majorettes reveal new outfits

THE Seaton Majorettes were sparkling when they unveiled their brand new outfits in time for Seaton's illuminated carnival procession.

Dressed in icy white and covered in sparkles, the majorettes showed off their brand new costumes at Seaton Methodist Church to their family and sponsors during the last rehearsal before their carnival performance.

The group have spent the past few months rallying support for their fundraising effort in order to purchase their new outfits and were pleased to show off the final result to those who have helped them.

Support has been shown by a number of local organisations who have helped raise the £4,955 in order to kit out the girls in full baton twirling attire.

Major donations came from the Axe Valley Runners with £700 (following the majorettes involvement in the Grizzly run), the Seaton and District Lions with £500, and a grant from Seaton Town Council of £1,000. Others included Steve's Print and Design, Woodfield Stores and a number of private patrons to the group.

Fundraising efforts from the girls themselves also boosted their funds, with a garden party, sponsored twirls, a display at Seaton Primary School fete and a Tesco bag pack.

Mayor and chairman of Seaton Town Council, Peter Burrows, said: "I am delighted to see how fantastic all the majorettes look. They are a great asset to the town and to Seaton's annual carnival events."

Leader of Seaton Majorettes, June Millman, added: "I would like to say a great big thank you to everyone who has helped and supported us to reach our fundraising goal and have the girls shimmering for this year's carnival.

"It is lovely to have the town's full support and the girls are proud to be flying the flag for Seaton, especially now they have new outfits."

SEATON TOWN FC

WWW.CLUBWEBSITE.CO.UK/SEATONTOWNFC01

▲ SEATON TOWN FC FIRST XI pictured with Josh Stunell (Manager) and Rob Ede (assistant manager) before their recent fixture with Heavitree Social United. The game finished 2-1 with Dan Norman and Mark Perham getting the goals for Seaton.

WE ARE 'The Seasiders' and play at Colyford Road in Seaton. We run three senior football teams: Seaton Town 1st Team - Devon & Exeter Premier Division, Seaton Town 2nd Team - Devon & Exeter Division 4 and Seaton Town Ladies. We are extremely proud of our youth system and run six competitive teams.

Seaton Town FC is a great club with a strong footballing history since 1919. Many great people over the years have contributed in making this a great family club.

We have an excellent clubhouse, with three flat screen tv's, showing premier league football.

We have a kitchen and a fully stocked bar keeping supporters and players happy every week.

Chairman's Notes: At Seaton town we are proud to have 3 senior teams, 6 youth teams and Tots. There is a general feeling of optimism in the club this season will lead to promotion for all the senior teams.

Once again the various sponsors have been very generous with their support, both large and small. This will help assist in the club's long term goal of acquiring a second pitch and new improved facilities.

Along side the football aspect of the club we also support 4 darts, 4 skittles and 2 boule teams throughout the year and have a good social calendar, various fundraising events are run by our fundraisers and the club committee.

Last season the 1st team were, for the second year running, runners up in the Premier Division, being overtaken by St. Martins on the last day. A fine season was capped by winning the Morrison Bell Cup with victories over three teams from the Peninsula League.

The vast majority of the 1st team squad have remained at the Club with the important addition of Glenn Gould and a fully fit Jonny Wilkinson. Some promising youngsters, especially Charlie Ledger and James Hill have also joined. Josh Stunnel, supported by John Clements and Rob Ede, is again managing the team and hopes are high of making a further attempt at promotion to the Peninsula League.

The Reserves will be managed by the Club Chairman, Steve Hayes. The squad has been bolstered by the return of some experienced players from the past and an interesting season is anticipated.

Seaton Women will be in their third year of existence. Last year considerable progress was made and, under the continued management of Jamie Bond, this trend is confidently expected to continue. Several new players have joined and any others interested are always welcome at training at the Club on Wednesday evenings.

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Reverend Judith Abbott of Axe Valley Mission Community writes: With the heroic exploits of the Olympics still fresh in our minds, we are invited to turn to further heroism – the extraordinary determination of the Paralympic athletes to excel in their chosen sports.

As one commentator has already pointed out, they will achieve things that 99 per cent of us never could. The back stories give real life to the coming events: I wonder how many of us could turn what could be such personal disaster as the loss of limbs in active service or an accident into a passionate determination to overcome? So very humbling. Blessings to them and all who suffer similar loss and won't be beaten by it.

And a postscript to say that the special hymn written for the Olympics and Paralympics is still topical and copyright free (see our column of August 7th). The hymn, of four verses written by Anglican cleric Christopher Idle, can be sung to the Tune Lux Eoi and has already been used at services in Honiton Deanery.

Exeter Cathedral marks Sunday, September 9th as Disability Sunday at the Eucharist – call 01626 867129 for more information.

News from Seaton comes next, where the Christian Aid Group has appointed a new secretary – Anita Urquhart – who can be contacted on 01297 62411. Seaton and District Christian Aid have a sponsored Walk on Saturday, September 15th from 10am-1pm from the URC Church, Cross Street. Supporters of all ages are needed and details of the walks can be obtained from the secretary. Families, children and dogs are most welcome.

Seaton Parish invites those who work with primary school children, especially church workers, to a session led by the Diocesan Children's Work Adviser on Monday, October 1st at St Gregory's Church Hall Seaton from 2-4pm. Call 01297 23656 for more information.

Yarcombe Parish Church launches 'Showtime' from September 14th-16th including a craft exhibition, refreshments and a concert on Sunday at 7:30pm. Call 01404 861541 for more information.

The Community Church in Honiton is sponsoring a food bank to assist those who have a food crisis due to problems over food and/or money. The Food Bank is open every Friday from 1-3pm at The King's Centre, High Street, Honiton. Call 07907 232076 for more information.

A remarkable and courageous lady

WELL-known Colyton resident Mieke Miller-Jansen died at Dovecourt Care Home, Seaton, on August 25th just a few weeks after celebrating her 88th birthday.

An only-child, Mieke was born in Holland in 1924 to parents, Bernadus and Hubertha Jansen. Her father worked for the Amsterdam Bank and also performed as a part-time actor in radio dramas. She had a childhood that she fondly recalled as carefree and happy – summer holidays by the sea, swimming, horse riding, playing tennis, and in winter, skating on the frozen canals and at Amsterdam's ice rinks.

The wartime occupation of Holland brought this childhood idyll to an abrupt end. Mieke started work in a food distribution depot and went on to train as a general medical nurse, later switching to dental nursing to avoid having to care for Nazi Germans. She worked for a dental practice in Amsterdam.

From 1941, aged just 17, until the end of the war Mieke witnessed and endured many horrific experiences and privations, all of which had profound and lifelong consequences for her beliefs and attitude to life – losing family friends in the ruthless Jewish purges; the house raids by German soldiers; the cold winters with no heating and lack of food.

Unknown to her mother or their closest friends, Mieke and her father sheltered and protected several local Jews from capture and almost certain death at the hands of the occupation forces. Many were hidden in the home and surgery of the dentist for whom she worked. She also helped Dutch fugitives hiding from the Germans, acting as a courier of food and information by pedalling her bicycle between hideouts – a highly risky and dangerous enterprise. She maintained that her youthful good looks, blond hair and cheeky disposition helped her outwit many a German sentry.

By the end of the war, due to acute food shortages in Holland, Mieke was suffering from chronic malnutrition and exhaustion. So it was in 1947 that, certified as a 'Loyal Dutch Citizen', she was given a work permit and sent to England for medical care and convalescence.

Arriving in Axminster, she initially worked as a nursery nurse. Not long after she obtained lodging in Honiton and resumed her career as a dental nurse working in a local practice.

OBITUARY
Mieke Miller-Jansen

She met Philip Miller – a Beer farmer's son (who had recently served in the RAF ) at Honiton Fair, and they were married in Amsterdam Town Hall in 1949, returning to farm at Lea Croft, Colyton Hill in 1949, where they had no electricity, only paraffin heating, and no mains water. Max Drukker, one of the Jewish friends that Mieke had helped to save from the Holocaust, in turn helped Philip and Mieke overcome early financial hardship, and so they went on to farm successfully on Colyton Hill for more than 40 years.

The young energetic Dutch lady became actively involved in the Colyton community, joining the Women's Institute and becoming a member of the Colyton Leisure Painters - she was enthusiastically artistic throughout her life. Serving on Colyton Parish Council for 2 terms, she was well known for her forthright views and comments. Mieke became secretary of the 1977 Queen's Silver Jubilee Committee and was involved in the building of the Jubilee shelter at the picnic site.

With Mrs Marjorie Baker, and other others in a dedicated group, she helped raise funds for the Colyton Abbeyfield Retirement Home, which was opened and dedicated to Mrs Marjorie Baker.

Mieke was an original supporter of the Friends of Seaton Hospital and proudly witnessed the building of the new hospital. She became a staunch supporter and a committee member of the Devon Branch of the Council for the Protection of Rural England, and was for a time on the Judging Panel for the "Best Kept Village" competition. She was heavily involved in the Colyton Royal British Legion, being the organiser of the Poppy Appeal, and as a member of the Colour Party at the Annual Remembrance Service.

Widowed in 1994, Mieke continued to live at Rosamundford where she and Philip had moved until she built her splendid new home in 2000, with its glorious views over the Axe Valley. She symbolically named it "Manna", using the code word for the RAF food drops over Holland after the war. Here she lived for 11 more happy years on her beloved Colyton Hill. In 1995 Mieke travelled back to Meppel on the 50th anniversary of the liberation, where she was honoured for her work there with the Dutch Resistance, an occasion that filled her with enormous pride.

Mieke will be remembered in so many ways but most of all as a colourful, kind and generous Dutch lady with a great love of England. She was a determined person with a good business sense and forthright views who was not afraid to speak her mind, but with a sense of humour, indomitable spirit and an underlying courage that brought her through the difficult war years and helped her deal with other tragedies in her life.

Mieke is survived by two daughters and her granddaughter Alice.

A service of celebration will be held at St. Andrews Church, Colyton on Saturday, September 15thg at 12 noon - all welcome.

Sunshine brings out the butterflies

country scene

Written by countryside correspondent TONY JACKSON

AFTER a summer's dearth of garden butterflies, the recent few days of sunshine intermingled with torrential rain have shown that there is still some hope for these insects.

My large buddleia, its purple flowers a blaze of colour, has been alive with tortoiseshells, peacocks, red admirals and even the odd late meadow brown, though I have yet to spot a painted lady. How encouraging to know that these insects have survived the dreadful summer to hatch in time for a last minute feast of nectar. It also shows the value of buddleias as a premier butterfly magnet in the garden.

I also encountered another welcome visitor a few evenings ago. Last thing at night my two yellow labradors and the little black lurcher are let out into the garden for a final run round.

On this occasion both the labs returned as usual but the lurcher, Ruby, was missing. A search with a torch revealed a curious snuffling sound by the stable block and there, to my amazement, I found the little dog pushing and playing with a very prickly ball covered in grass and leaves.

It was a large hedgehog rolled into such a tight ball that it was impossible to see where it began and ended. Fortunately, no harm was done and the Fuzzypeg was placed in thick grass unharmed.

I was delighted to see the hog and only hope it will not take too deep umbrage at the disturbance to its nightly stroll. The garden is alive with slugs and snails so, hopefully, it will return to feast on them.

Dr Richard Lane, from near Kilmington, has written to me on the subject of balsam and bees. As readers may recall I recently mentioned a plea from a beekeeper to allow balsam to flower, as it is such a good source of nectar for bees, before uprooting the invasive plant.

However, as Dr Lane points out, many bumble bees and honey bees prefer it to native plants which, in turn, reduces their pollination success and potential survival.

It is indeed a conundrum for beekeepers... do they take advantage of balsam with its high energy value of the nectar and risk losing native plants, or destroy the balsam in order to return to a more balanced scenario?

As far as I am concerned I take every opportunity to uproot balsam and have a strong dislike to seeing its alien garish pink flowers despoiling our native hedgerows and countryside.

As usual, the Essex 'lion' furore which hit the headlines a week ago proved to be an anti-climax. The animal turned out to be a rather large ginger tom but, as usual, the story unearthed the usual 'experts' who pontificated on the presence or otherwise of 'big cats' in the British countryside.

One such on the Today programme on Radio 4 announced that there were definitely no big cats roaming the countryside, only rather large domestic cats which had gone feral.

According to him, these cats can now reach a length of over four feet and weigh up to 40lb! However, as usual no corpse has been recovered and the evidence for this new breed of domestic cat would appear to be remarkably flimsy.

One must assume that these mega-moggies are capable of pulling down a sheep or roe deer and all of them are breeding to one colour, black.

Perhaps some of the witnesses who have had close encounters with 'big cats' would now like to accept that the animal they have seen has simply been a big pussycat!

Somehow, I rather fancy the Today 'expert' might get a rather dusty answer! The evidence, on film and video, is now overwhelming for the presence of some form of big cats in our countryside and I don't mean overgrown tabbies. The alternative is to assume that hundreds of folk are lying or suffering from mega-moggy syndrome!

Fly 'dance' is only method of swatting village pest

■ FENITON is once again is suffering this summer, by a plague of flies.

This is the third summer in succession, that for some reason the fly problem has increased, it is at such a stage that yesterday, in just a two-hour period, I managed to swat in excess of 50, yes 50, flies that had accumulated within our kitchen and living room, during just that day.

In all honesty, I probably do this most days, when the summer puts in a appearance and I can open the doors and windows.

It is at a stage now where on a hot day we feel we cannot leave doors or windows open.

Whilst I appreciate in an agricultural area, with animals and fertilization of pasture land, you will encounter issues associated, such as 'country smells' for want of a better word, however flies on this scale should not be accepatable.

Word in the village has it that South West Water, are pumping sewerage onto local fields, I cannot confirm this as accurate, however if this is the case, then they should be ordered to cease immediately, as this would undoubtedly cause such an infestation, and as we know flies carry and spread disease.

Another possible cause may be the local chicken and pig farms, again, I would urge EDDC's Environmental Health Office to consider visiting to inspect the levels of cleanliness and hygiene to see if this is a contributing factor.

Don't get me wrong, the farms were here first, and I have seen no signs of neglect myself that would indicate they have a potential problem.

I know most farmers are extremely responsible and the vast majority will ensure that the best possible care and treatment is given to maximise their yield, and maintain any profits they may make... so this is not a dig at farmers.

We have a two and five-year-old, both have to close their bedroom doors and windows to stop fly infestation.

When visitors come to our home, because of the problem, we have to explain its not a hygiene issue with our home... but a local issue!

I am sure you are aware of the many applications to further develop our lovely village, how would you feel if you bought one of those homes only to find a pre-existing issue had not been pointed out to you, or efforts made to prevent it.

These flies are not just your common or garden house fly some of these are blue-bottles and horse flies, some so large I was thinking of fitting them with a saddle, and taking up flying lessons!

In our home I have tried several ways to control the problem... fly-catching bottles, electic zappers, sticky fly papers, I have even used aerosols – the result is they are more likley to kill us than the flies – but these efforts have been largely ineffective.

The best method I have found, is to dance around the house like a person possessed, in the early evening when the air is cooler, and the flies are more lethargic waving my 'clap-clap' – as my two-yea-old daughter calls it – moving from room to room.

I kid you not I could spend hours at it. I am a dab hand, a kind of stealth Ninja!

Believe me I am well used to flies, having served in Iraq in 2003, and lived in epidemic swarms of flies, where you literally couldn't eat or sleep because of them constantly buzzing and landing on you or your food... but that was in third world conditions, and temperatures in excess of 40 degrees daily – not the United Kingdom.

We dont want to live in a vacuum with doors and windows shut, or fit unsightly fly screens on all the doors and windows.

We are happy to have the occasional smell of the countryside, but to prevent this epidemic and potential illness it may have to be the next step we take.

MEP shares thoughts on dog ownership

■ A NUMBER of constituents have contacted me regarding irresponsible dog ownership.

How the problem is dealt with is the responsibility of the government not the EU, however I wanted to share with readers my thoughts on this matter. I am particularly concerned about unprovoked attacks on Guide Dogs.

Recent measures announced by the government include extending dangerous dog laws to all private property. This change will mean that irresponsible dog owners who fail to take adequate steps to control their dogs on private land, can be prosecuted. This will give greater protection to legitimate visitors to the home, such as health workers or postal workers, without penalising the owners of dogs that defend them against trespassers.

In order to get the balance right, the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) has also announced a consultation on whether to micro-chip all dogs with a view to implementing the compulsory micro-chipping of newborn puppies. The response to that consultation is expected shortly. This may help tackle the problem of irresponsible owners who cannot be traced after a dog has attacked, and ease the overwhelming number of strays that are put down as the owner cannot be identified.

Seafood Platter, Beer

THE Seafood Platter is going from strength to strength following it's name change last month.

The name - 'The Seafood Platter' - aims not only to pick out the award winning gastro pub's signature dish but also reinstates the premises as a top seafood and local cuisine venue.

After entering the well-known Taste of the West awards last year, the traditional pub came away with a silver award highlighting their interest in the best local produce available. Now they hope that they can do even better in the years to come, singling themselves out as a true location for 'foodies' everywhere.

Customers are able to see where their food comes from, with an extensive menu and supplier list on show, highlighting a list of suppliers from Seaton and the Lyme Bay to Luscombe Organic Produce and Christopher Piper wines based near Ottery St Mary.

The family run business has recently been redecorated and has developed internally into a fresh yet traditional look and now the Hunt family hope that their new name will give them that extra boost for years to come.

Supporting sustainability for both the environment and the local food market, a major philosophy of the restaurant is supporting the 'sustainable fish fight,' serving only fresh fish from the Lyme Bay area, as well as only using free range, traditionally reared meats from local suppliers.

The kitchen team also show a major commitment to making food freshly on the premises, with homemade deserts and daily baked bread, whilst all other food is sourced from as close to Beer as possible.

The Hunt Family have been running the pub for 22 years, first arriving at the premises in 1990. They hope that they can continue to provide a real family feel and traditional service to their customers whilst really excelling in the high quality food market.

Manager, Luke Hunt said: "We are all very pleased with the response to the name change from both locals and our regular visitors, we hope it will really put us on the map as a real gastro pub, rather than your average local pub.

"We aim to provide a friendly and professional service, with only the highest standards of food, usually all locally sourced produce and freshly made dishes created by our award winning chefs.

"We are looking forward to what the future will bring and cannot wait to continue improving and embracing our high food standards at - 'The Seafood Platter."

Village pulls out all the stops with a Tin Man on display for flower festival

AS you drive along the A30 on the weekend of September 14th, 15th and 16th don't be surprised to see a Tin Man standing at the lychgate outside Yarcombe Church.

He will be welcoming and directing you down the Yellow Brick Road, into the Land Of Oz.

Yarcombe is pulling out all the stops for its Flower Festival which will continue until Sunday, September 16th.

The theme is Show Time, and amongst other well-known shows, more dramatic displays will feature, War Horse, My Fair Lady and Phantom of the Opera.

All the exhibits are being prepared by villagers and their friends, with help from sister parishes in the 5 Alive Mission Community, Stockland, Dalwood, Kilmington, and Shute.

Refreshments in the form of morning coffee, ploughman's lunches and cream teas will be available in the Jubilee Hall.

On Saturday, September 15th there will be a Show Time Concert in the church, with soprano Val Howels, Kroft Originals from Dalwood and James Pidgeon to name a few.

Tickets cost £5 to include a glass of wine and 'nibbles'. The weekend will conclude on Sunday with Evensong at 6pm.

I plead guilty as charged

EDITOR AT LARGE

Philip Evans

I STAND accused - by a few regular readers - of being a tad too jingoistic in waxing lyrical over the past few months about this summer's two main events - the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the London 2012 Olympics.

All I can say is that I plead guilty and ask for dozens of other offences to be taken into consideration.

One less-than-impressed reader emailed me to say that not everyone in Pulman's Country was such a "fervent royalist" as me and that my admiration for our Olympians was bordering on the "fanatical".

Actually, I am not a rabid monarchist by any means. I think the Queen and Prince Philip have done a brilliant job, Prince Charles is a thoroughly nice bloke and Wills and Harry are a breath of fresh air. Princess Ann obviously works hard for 'The Firm" but as for the rest of them, well I'm not over enamoured. But looking at the shenanigans across the Atlantic at the moment, I'm pleased we have a monarch and not a president.

The reason I was upbeat over the Jubilee celebrations was because it provided a rare opportunity in these days of austerity for communities to come together.

I don't think it does any harm from time to time to celebrate our Britishness.

As a sports enthusiast all my life, I was always going to be excited by the Olympics. And I believe this country delivered the best ever gathering of world class athletes who responded with performances to match.

And who could fail to be impressed by the incredible achievements seen in the Paralympic, stadium this weekend?

Jingoistic? Guilty m'Lord!

THIS week we say farewell to another East Devon sporting legend.

My colleague Stuart Broom, no mean footballer in his younger days, pays his own touching tribute to Doug Pomeroy in our Axminster edition and I would like to add my own memories of such a charismatic character.

To be honest, as young footballers we were all a bit wary of Doug Pomeroy, the referee. He was the one man in black with whom you didn't argue. If you did, you knew what would happen. An early bath.

Doug never wavered. He just would not tolerate bad behaviour or insolence on the football pitch. He was always consistent and he won our respect.

He wasn't half so frightening off the field of play but it was clear he lived his life by a set of high standards. Always smartly dressed, hair slicked back with the widest grin.

Sport and family were the two passions of his life, a life that had its fair share of challenges, especially during the war when he found himself, not by choice, working down the coal mines as a Bevan Boy.

In these days when the standing of referees sits somewhere between that of tax inspector and reporters, we shall never see the likes of Doug Pomeroy again.

And the world is a poorer place for it.

It's carnival time!

IT'S that time of year again when the streets of East Devon throb to the sound of pulsating music and flashing lights – Carnival Time. Yippee!

As always, Seaton kicked off the East Devon circuit season with a full week of events, culminating in the grand procession on Saturday,

With all the health and safety requirements and increasing insurance costs, it becomes increasingly difficult to maintain the standard set in years gone by.

As usual the Sid Vale Carnival Club won best in procession with their spooky "Bump In The Night" float – but it was half the size of their usual tableaux, nevertheless, well worthy of their first prize. It is said that Sid Vale are celebrating a big anniversary in 2013 and are keeping their funds for a super-duper entry next year.

Colyton's week of fun and frolics started in usual high spirits on Saturday with the crowning of their Carnival Queen and their finale procession will almost certainly win the most local support.

Then's it's the turn of Axminster, followed by Honiton, Sidmouth and Newton Poppleford.

Carnivals take a huge amount of organising so hats off to all those who work so hard to bring such spectacular entertainment to our town. Long may that be the case.

at the Guildhall from 6 pm.

Axminster hasn't had a Carnival Queen for quite a few of years. There were a number of reasons for this – our committee is very small so we had difficulty organising a competition and escorting the youngsters, also unfortunately apathy on part of young girls to enter. So very sadly it was decided we would have to run our Carnivals without a Queen. However we are extremely pleased this year that Elaine Voysey has organised a Royal Procession of former Carnival Queens. We hear that seven ladies from years gone by are taking part. We could call it the Queen Mum's procession but don't worry they are all Yummy Mummies so will add lots of glamour to the Carnival. It is hoped that this may inspire young girls to want to enter competition to become Carnival Queen and that we will get new members to help us organise this.

All we need now is for a lovely warm September evening. However come rain or shine we hope that everyone will come along and have a wonderful evening.

Axminster Carnival organisers hope that a new class will prove a hit during this year's event on Saturday, September 15th. Carnival committee member Liz Purvey said: "We have a new class in the carnival, Mini Float.

"Hopefully this will enable more people to take part in the carnival and make it a very happy atmosphere."

Those interested can get entry forms and more information from Geoff Enticott on 07840268730.

The carnival is so much more than the parade of floats, and carnival week starts with bingo in the guildhall on Monday September 10th at 8pm.

Liz said: "We run bingo sessions on a Monday throughout the year.

"Without our regular attendants we wouldn't have the funds to run our carnival, we thank them all and hope to see them on the 10th.

"A bonus prize for the flyer at our carnival bingo will be £100 instead of the usual £50.

"Everyone is most welcome to join us."

The Misplaced Article Competition will run from September 7th-15th, and entry forms can be obtained from the library or The Sweet Shop in Victoria Place. Home-made cakes will be on sale along with books and bric-a-brac at the carnival coffee morning in the Church Rooms on Thursday September 13th. Organisers promise various forms of entertainment in the square from 6pm on carnival night.

Liz said: "A group called Extractor will be playing some lively music.

"A Children's fancy dress competition will be held from 7pm and we do hope lots of children will take part this year.

"Dorset Youth Band will be leading the procession and we also have the Axe Men Bikers again.

"We hope that lots of people will dress up and go round with collection tins.

"We would just like to remind everyone that 25 per cent of money collected in their tins will go to their chosen charity.

"Tins can be obtained on the night at the guildhall from 6 pm."

As previously reported, a search for former Axminster Carnival queens was started by Elaine Voysey, who is a former carnival queen.

Liz gave an update and said: "Axminster hasn't had a carnival queen for quite a few years.

"There were a number of reasons for this. Our committee is very small so we had difficulty organising a

THE HOSTS WITH THE MOST!

Millers Farm Shop Producers Day this Sunday

THE Miller Family requests the pleasure of the company of food-lovers everywhere to their farm shop and working farm on Sunday, September 9th from 10am till 4pm.

You'll meet an array of local producers selling a wide choice of wares from beef, pork and pies to cakes, crisps, coffee, cream and cider.

Housed in their barn the show will go on come rain or shine. As well as meeting the people behind the produce visitors can also refresh themselves with coffee and cake or tuck into a hog-roast while kids of all ages can take on the Rodeo Bull challenge.

Up to 20 stalls will showcase producers large and small from Burts Crisps and Bridport Pies to olive oils, fudge, condiments, jams and chutneys. Fresh bread will be available from Pauls Bakery of Seaton and scrummy cakes from Bridport's Jessica. Stock up on beer from Piddle Valley Brewery or enjoy the range of ciders from Dorset Nectar.

The Farm Shop will be fully open throughout with its wide range of fresh vegetables, wines, meat, storecupboard goods and the French specialities that locals come from miles around to buy. So forget the supermarket this weekend and get it all at Millers!

Millers Farm Shop is next to the A35 at Kilmington (sat nav postcode EX13 7RA), parking is plentiful and entry to the event is free.

The Miller Family looks forward to seeing you there!

For more information please call Rachel Miller on 01297 35290 or visit www.millersfarmshop.com

Auditions soon for Calamity Jane

'THE Golden Garter' is preparing to swing open it's saloon doors to welcome none other than Calamity Jane as the next offering by Lyme Regis Operatic Society. Proprietor, Henry Miller will be hoping to entertain his regular customers, Wild Bill Hickock, Lieutenant Danny Gilmartin and Doc Pierce with a class act all the way from Chicago - Miss Adelaide Adams. Somehow, through a series of 'calamitous' mistakes, they are firstly given a dose of "Miss Frances Fryer" (otherwise known as Francis Fryer) and then Katie Brown tries her luck. After a near lynching, Calamity Jane tries to sort it all out and, along with Susan who is Miller's niece, and Rattlesnake who drives the stagecoach, these are the main characters in the musical.

The production will be performed from May 14-18th 2013 with main rehearsals on Tuesday evenings and principal rehearsals on Thursdays, generally in the Church Hall, starting on Tuesday, November 20th 2012 at 7.30pm.

If you are interested in taking part and would like to audition for one of the above roles, then you will be welcome at the Auditions which will be held on Sunday, September 23rd at the Church Hall in Church Street, Lyme Regis from 6.30pm. Audition pieces can be obtained from Mrs Jean Wellings on 01297 443382. Please let Jean know if you intend to audition so that we are prepared for the numbers attending.

Peco Loco Week a steaming success

THE recent Peco Loco Week, followed by the August Bank Holiday Railway Gala at Pecorama was a steaming success!

Visiting steam locomotives from Yorkshire, the Midlands, London and Northern Ireland put on a fantastic show for the hundreds of Pecorama visitors, many of which were train enthusiasts, who had travelled the length and breadth of the country to see all the loco's in action.

Most of the loco's have been regular visitors to Peco over the years during Loco Week and have returned time after time because they love the opportunity to show off their engines on a working railway in the wonderful setting of Pecorama.

Re-launch of Axminster's Rock Chorus

AXMINSTER Rock Chorus (ARCh) is being relaunched on September 17th. ARCh's director Andy Hague says, "When we began ARCh in January 2012 there was loads of initial enthusiasm, with over 100 people turning up to the first rehearsal. However, as the year went on numbers fell away a bit, and I had a sense that people wanted to concentrate more on easy to pick up, fun songs with more melody and less harmony as well as less need to practise between rehearsals. I'm hoping that some of those who left may come back; I also hope that people who have never sung in a choir before may come and give it a try. Singing in a choir is a unique experience. When lots of voices are blended to make rich harmony it's a turbocharged sensation of artistic expression and creativity. It will boost your confidence and blow your blues away. I think that everyone owes it to himself or herself to give choral singing a try. 'I can't sing!' is not really an excuse either; the truth is that almost everyone can sing and as in all things, practise makes perfect. Why not give the new 'ARCh' a try, or if you live closer to Honiton and you are up for more challenging arrangements, find out about 'Sweet Honi n' Soul'. Give Pat a ring on 01297 32838 or email pathicks@btinternet.com Our website for ARCh and Sweet Honi n' Soul is www.sweethoni.co.uk

Andy is also running a Saturday morning course entitled SINGOUT aimed at vocal novices. The course takes place over 10 Saturday morning sessions (one a month) and aims to get you to the ability to sing complex choral music in different styles by the end of the series. To find out more about this once again contact Pat Hicks on 01297 32838 (pathicks@btinternet.com) You can see Andy's profile on his website www.andrew-hague.co.uk

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Head to Feet

I first started caring for peoples health in the sixties when l did my S.E.N nursing training in Sheffield.

The real introduction to Complementary Medicine was when my second child become ill, and it was only osteopathy that helped her. About the same time a friend of mine was having trouble with her back, she asked me if I could massage it for her, as I seemed to have healing hands, I was able to give her a lot of relief, being in a lot of pain at the time. I become more and more interested in Complementary Medicine and was able to help my friends and family even more.

lt wasn't until we came down to live in Axminster, I was working as a Care Assistant in a Dementia Care Home, that Idecided to take a course or 3 with the" School of Natural Health Sciences" in Reflexology, Advanced Reflexology", and "Indian Head Massage". I was an A student. I became a member of the "International College of Holistic Medicine". As Indian Head Massage consists also of back and shoulder massage [as well as neck head and face] with or without out oils I am able to continue with Back and Shoulder massage as a separate therapy if required. I am able to work from home including home visits, and care homes. Treatments usually last about 1hr. and includes perfumed candles and soft relaxing music.

Reflexology is massage of the body as a whole through the feet or hands. As with Indian Head Massage it relaxes and stimulates the whole body, thus allowing it to work better. Allowing me to help each client with there own individual needs.

As I am also a carer at home l have been able to realize how important these therapies can be.

Has there ever been a better time to buy an Ampera?

WITH recent reports showing a gallon of petrol is set to hit £6.16 across the UK, there's never been a better time to switch to low cost, eco-friendly, electric motoring. This year's European Car of the Year – the Vauxhall Ampera – offers the perfect solution.

The Ampera's groundbreaking propulsion system offers all of the benefits of electric driving without any of the drawbacks. Providing the battery is charged overnight, there is every chance you could go for months without having to visit the pumps. Add to this the on board range-extender which will supply electricity should the battery be depleted and you have the first electric car suitable for everyday use.

For as little as £1 the Ampera provides a battery powered emissions free range of 25-50 miles. This range is ample for the average daily UK commute which research shows is less than 30 miles. For longer journeys electricity is produced via an on-board range extender/generator which seamlessly powers the car for a further 310 miles.

And it's this technology that motorists will find compelling, as petrol and diesel prices shot up by around 2.5 per cent across the UK this month. Petrol rose by 3.3 pence per litre while diesel increased by 3.1ppl, leading to average pump prices of 135.5ppl and 140.4ppl respectively. These figures make harsh reading at a time when everyone is feeling the pinch, but it's not just the Ampera's astounding frugality that'll help motorists cut their costs.

Ampera prices, which start at £29,995, include a £5000 government Plug-In-Car Grant (PICG) and the car benefits from VED and congestion charge exemption too. Company car drivers also prosper from a 50 per cent reduction in company car tax. The Ampera also comes with Vauxhall's Lifetime Warranty and an eight-year, 100,000 mile warranty on the battery systems.

DIVISION D

SEATON 1ST XI 162-9 BEAT WHIMPLE 116 ALL OUT BY 46 RUNS.

SEATON finished the season at home to Whimple needing to better Plymouth CS points total at home to Filleigh by 10.

The home team knew it would be a tough game against a side who were battling against relegation.

Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and batted first as it would be easier that way to get full points. Alex Hunt and Toby Tucker opened the batting and the latter fell early in the innings meaning Steve Pritchard joined Hunt and both steadied the ship batting comfortably until Pritchard gave the bowler a bit of catching practice on 28 leaving Seaton on 40-2.

Mike Wheeler, Alex Hunt and Ed Hunt all fell shortly after leaving Seaton struggling on 90-5. Morgan and 2nd XI regular Chris Aplin put on 50 for the 6th wicket as the team reached 162/9.

In reply, Ben Copp and Phil Collins bowled to their usual game plan to see Whimple struggle to 28-4.

Seaton eventually dismissed the visitors for 116 with Morgan, Copp and Collins taking three wickets a piece.

But Seaton's promotion hopes were dashed when the news that Plymouth CS had won at Filleigh.

Morgan said: "It was going to be a tough ask as it was in Plymouth's hands but we did our bit and that is all I can ask."

Reflecting on the season Morgan said: "My aim at the start of the season was to get us playing as a team and we have been very much that this year with everyone helping each other out.

"The other aim was to be there or thereabouts in the promotion race and again we took it to the last game so I am happy.

"Everyone has performed well at times and it is nice to see Mark Bray converting his friendly runs into league cricket and Phil Collins and Joe Berry's bowling has been good. It has been a long time since four bowlers from the 1st XI have passed 20 wickets each."

"The only positive about not going up is that the travelling is more local again and it gives us a chance to bring in some of the very talented Colts into the 1st XI picture next year"

ON THE SPOT...

VIEW FROM Sport puts Seaton FC's
JAMIE BOND
UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long have you been involved in the local football scene? Who have you played for or managed?

A I've been involved in local football for 22 years. I've played for Beer Albion for five seasons and Seaton Town for 15 seasons. I managed Seaton Reserves for a season and Beer first team for one season

Q Name the three best players you've played alongside or managed?

A Mark Rooke - the best goal keeper I've ever played with - if he shouts you move! Alex Anning - the best striker of a dead ball I've ever seen and knows the game inside and out! Jimmy Matthews - technically the best all-round footballer I've played with, although as he got older I tended to do more of his running…

Q What's the best away ground you've visited?

A St James' Park Exeter City for the Exeter school under 12s

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A I was playing for Seaton 1st team in the Devon Premier Cup semi-final against Sidmouth 1st team at Sidmouth. We were 3-1 down with seven minutes to go and won 4-3! I scored the equaliser with my left foot - which was very rare.

Q How would you improve things at Seaton Town FC?

A I think we, as a club, need to do our best to get two teams out every week for this season. Next season should be easier as there will be the under 16s coming up through to mens football. Also, as manager of the Seaton ladies I would like to see the team continue for many years .

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Lara Spiers - an amazing footballer and only just 16. Finley and Taylor Rooke who both play for the Exeter city youth team that I recently went to watch play at Liverpool.

COTLEY Hunt Pony club recently sent an eventing team to the National Pony Club Championships held at Cholomondeley Castle in Cheshire between August 16th and 19th.

The team came 5th in the intermediate event, which with only three members was a very good result.

The team riders were: Layla Felgate: Ricas Moon Shadow, Olivia Benger: Farney River and Sophie Benger: Mr Monty. Olivia came 2nd and Sophie 7th individually. Olivia also represented Cotley in the dressage and show jumping finals at the Championships.

The team are now looking forward to doing the open class next year.

Cotley Pony Club also sent an eventing team to the National Novice Challenge competition held at Kelsall in Cheshire 25th and 26th August, hosted by the Cheshire North Pony club.

The team riders were: Rosanna Hendley: Chilli Pepper, Georgina Ewell: Zoretto and Henrietta Ewell: Pickles.

Georgina Ewell did extremely well to win her section and finish on her very good dressage score of 27.6. Rosanna also competed in the show jumping competition as well.

Both teams would like to thank, their team manager Sarah Clist and the Cotley D.C. Mrs Ford.

Triple test for Lyme's in-form Sophie

WHAT a couple of weeks it has been for Sophie Keech of Lyme Regis Golf Club.

In between the British Girls Amateur Championships and North Of England U16s, Sophie was invited as a Faldo Series finalist with two other girls to play in The Ladies British Master Pro-Am at The Buckinghamshire Golf Club, Denham, a competition that featured some celebrities teaming up with the Lady Professionals.

The Pro-Am event was the day after the final round of The Ladies British Masters with the likes of Laura Davies and top Ladies European Tour players competing.

Sophie and the girls were teamed up with tournament 3rd and England rising star, Henni Zuel.

Although the team did not win, it was a fantastic opportunity to meet with a top tour professional and gain valuable experience.

The British Girls Amateur Championships, held at Tenby Golf Club, is one of the main events for the girls on the circuit.

A field of 144 top golfers representing countries from all over the world was whittled down to 64 after two rounds of stroke play.

Sophie qualified in a creditable joint 53rd and played superbly in what can only be described as atrocious conditions.

The tournament then entered its matchplay phase. Sophie defied the seeding and upset 8th placed Elodie Van Dievoet from Belgium by one hole in Round One to reach the last 32.

However, after a battling performance Sophie went down 3&2 to Germany's rising star, Karolin Lampert in Round Two.

The result overall gave Sophie momentum going into the North Of England U16 Championships at Pannal Golf Club in Yorkshire where she put her best sequence of rounds this year.

After the first two rounds, Sophie carded a par 74 with an eagle on a par 5 and superb five under with back-to-back chip in's to score 69 to qualify for the final two rounds in 2nd place and one shot off the lead.

This meant Sophie was paired with tournament leader Gabby Cowley going in the final two rounds.

A final round of 71 ended with two birdies and gave her an incredible eight under par total of 288, six shots clear of 3rd and a worthy 2nd place.

Sophie said: " I really likes Harrogate, my family roots are here. I love the course.

"Before play on the second day I received my exam results and passed them all! - I was so excited I just knew I was going to play well, and I did."

Sophie now prepares for her next big event, The Faldo Series U16 Girls Final, held at Lough Erne in Northern Ireland in September.

Scrum-down rugby round-up

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Plus points in defeat

SIDMOUTH 29 CLEVEDON 33

CONDITIONS were ideal for the opening of the new league season.

Sidmouth gained possession via a knock on at the first lineout, centre Higgs made the line for an early score. The try remained unconverted.

Any thoughts they might have had of an easy afternoon were soon dispelled however, for the next few minutes belonged to the visitors. They took up residence in the home twenty two, attacked through their eight around the fringes and after several thrusts one of their locks crashed over close to the posts from close range. The try was converted and Clevedon led 7-5.

The game was developing into the Jason Luff show at this stage for, from the next lineout, the Sidmouth 10 broke and ran to the full-back. His off load found Beavis who ran to the posts for scrum-half Goss to convert.

We were being entertained to a scoring bonanza at this stage for, around the 15 minute mark, the visitors kicked a penalty to the corner and executed a front peel and got over close to touch. Hunt added the extras with an excellent kick and the visitors now led 14-12.

They extended their lead on the 25 minute mark. A Sidmouth up-and-under was well fielded. The catcher slipped the first-up tackler and ran into the hole he had left. He ran to the twenty five before off-loading and the try was touched down out wide. Hunt again converted.

Sidmouth were falling foul of authority far too often for their own peace of mind at this stage and conceded several penalties from which Clevedon prospered as regards possession and territory. One such award resulted in a try also for, just before the break, they kicked to the corner and blind side Johnson got over close to the posts from the ensuing lineout. Again the extras were added and now it was imperative that Sidmouth got the next score.

They did just that, and it was a good one. They sent the ball wide from inside their own half and, after the ball had gone through several pairs of hands, Tom Seward was up to take the scoring pass, and to run some way to the posts. The conversion kick went wide and Sidmouth trailed 28-17 at the halfway stage.

While I thought that Sidmouth had the edge at the set scrums, the visitors' lineout was going well and their back three were punishing any loose kick out of the home defence by running the ball back.

The home side continued to annoy the referee in the second period, and had one of their number sent to the bin for 10 minutes for some felony or other. They then conceded a penalty wide on the right and Clevedon took advantage by spinning the ball wide for their left winger to touch down.

The conversion was missed but Sidmouth found themselves, at 33-17 in arrears, needing three scores to get back into the game. All credit to them, for they had their moments in attack, and, although they were understandably guilty of hurrying a little, got a score back with 10 minutes left.

Luff's cut out pass again did the damage and put centre Higgs into the gap. He touched down between the posts and Goss kicked the goal.

The score now stood at 24-33 and the home side, with nothing to lose threw everything into the final few minutes. One or two penalties conceded blighted their efforts however, and gave Clevedon some welcome relief and, although Sidmouth had the final say when Luff took a quick tap and ran diagonally right to touch down, it was all too little too late despite Goss's successful conversion narrowing the gap to a couple of points.

Sidmouth can take a lot from it for, apart from their point for scoring four tries, their losing bonus point, and a useful senior debut by prop Tom Irish, they gave as good as they got in most departments, with Luff being a thorn in the Clevedon side for much of the game in spite of their halfback link not being consistent.

The adverse penalty count was their undoing, for their failings in this area handed possession and territory to their opponents on a number of occasions.

ST AUSTELL 46 HONITON 10

THIS was most certainly "not a good day at the office" for Honiton in what was their first game ever at this level.

Although forced on to the defensive for much of the first period, they coped well enough and trailed 10-3 at the halfway stage, with their points coming from a Ollie Cave penalty goal.

They had one or two problems along the way however. Hooker Calum Hill had to leave the field with a rib injury, and Ben Way was also sidelined after he had intercepted a stray elbow in the face.

All these tribulations continued throughout the second-half. The home side stretched away, claimed the four-try bonus point and ended the day as comfortable winners. Honiton were rewarded when, after a good build up, Ben Dobson touched down in the final minutes. Cave's conversion kick was accurate and gave his side some consolation.

HONITON 12 BUCKFASTLEIGH 34

WHILE Honiton seconds would have been confident of holding their own against second division opposition, Buckfastleigh of the first division proved to be a step too far.

After an even first quarter the visitors took the lead with a converted try. A second try by the visitors, converted from near touch took the scoreline to 0-14 at the halfway stage.

The home side had the slope in their favour throughout the second half and, after Buckfastleigh had increased their lead by kicking a penalty, Honiton got a score back when Matt Olive got one for the front row union after his colleagues had mauled their way over.

Trailing by 12 points on the hour Honiton were still just about in contention, but Buckfastleigh then stretched away, scoring three tries in the final quarter to make the game safe. Honiton kept going however and, at the last, winger Sam Collins touched down. Skipper Churchward kicked the conversion .

PREVIEW

HONITON, who suffered a bit of a culture shock on Saturday last, face another difficult fixture this weekend when TAVISTOCK visit Allhallows.

Their opponents were also promoted last April and came out on top decisively when the sides last met.

Honiton will do well to win this one, home advantage notwithstanding.

SIDMOUTH make the shortish journey to CULLOMPTON, a side who ended last season in the division's mid table. Sidmouth bested these opponents on their last visit and I predict a repeat result.

As to the second sides, both Sidmouth and Honiton take on the second sides of the clubs their first sides face. Sidmouth thirds travel to Crediton.

FIXTURES 8th September

Honiton v Tavistock; Honiton 2nd v Tavistock 2nd; Cullompton v Sidmouth; Sidmouth 2nd v Cullompton 2nd; Crediton 3rd v Sidmouth 3rd.

Football East Devon round-up

Tigers put faith in local talent

AXMINSTER Town, who struggled in the South West Peninsular East Division One last season, are putting their faith in local talent for the current campaign – and it seems to be working writes Philip Evans.

Last season the Tigers picked up only two wins in 32, finishing just above Ottery St Mary, who have dropped out of the league, with a paltry seven points.

Under new manager Paul Ashford, the Carpetmen have already matched that performance with seven points from their opening four games.

Axminster started the 2012-2013 campaign with a 0-0 draw at home to Exmouth Town, followed by an encouraging 5-1 win over Exeter University.

The Tigers were not so impressive away to Exeter Civil Service, losing 3-1, but bounced back on Saturday with an excellent second half performance in their 3-1 win over Plymstock which leaves them in sixth place in the table.

The Axminster side had a familiar look about it with the prolific Sam Dibling and Terry Emmett returning after a year's sabbatical at Millwey Rise.

And with the diminutive Tom Perryman and Richie Emmett looking capable of terrorising the staunchest of defences and Dan Beer showing great promise in defence, the Tigers look more than capable of holding their own at this level.

Next Saturday the Tigers travel to North Devon to meet Appledore who have three points from three games, securing their first victory last week, beating Galmpton 3-2.

South West Peninsular League Division One (East)

Axminster Town 3, Plymstock 1

AFTER losing on Monday of last week to Exeter Civil Service, Axminster Town were looking for their second win of the season against Plymstock at Sector Lane on Saturday writes Philip Evans.

New signing Darren Stewart, the former Bridport and Chard Town Western League defender, was playing his first games for the Tigers with manager Paul Ashford handing him the captain's armband.

Axminster started slowly, hesitant in defence, and were lucky not to go behind early in the game when the visitors created two good scoring chances.

Sam Dibling looked lively up front and came close after latching onto a good through ball.

Plymstock took the lead from the penalty spot when Ollie Highet handled in the box with Duncan Duthie converting with ease.

The Tigers continued to ride their luck with the visitors wasting two more scoring chances.

Axminster's best opportunity to get back on equal terms came when the lively Richie Emmett lifted the ball over the bar as he was bundled over in the box with the referee ignoring shouts for a penalty.

With the Tigers pressing hard for the equaliser, Emmett and Alex Wheatley went close before Wheatley levelled the scores with a left foot scorcher seconds before the half-time whistle.

Axminster looked more committed after the break with Dibling going close and winger Tom Perryman, a constant threat to the visitors, heading over the bar from a good position.

The breakthrough came in the 75th minutes when Wheatley slid the ball home after to good work from Dibling to make it 2-1.

Whilst Plymstock still had plenty of possession, they failed to capitalise on their frequent attacks and the result was put beyond doubt in the 87th minute when Dibling was rewarded for his strong running up front. Substitute Terry Emmett held the ball up well before slotting an in-perfect pass for the striker to slot home after running 50 yards.

This victory will give new manager Paul Ashford confidence that the Tigers, who struggled last season at this level, will be able to hold their own in Division One using local talent.

Axminster: Luke Ashford, Ollie Highet, Daniel Beer, Martin Hancock, Darren Stewart, Jack Knight, Lewis Couch, Alex Wheatley, Sam Richie Emmett , Sam Dibling, Tom Perryman. Subs: Aaron Doble for Jack Knight, Terry Emmett for Lewis Couch, Wes Tarr for Tom Perryman. Unused subs: Correy Couch and Elliott Dyer.

Man-of-the-match: Alex Wheatley.

East Devon Senior Cup

GOALS from Dan Norman and Mark Perham earned Seaton Town a place in round three after a 2-1 win over Heavitree SU at Colyford Road.

Meanwhile Chris Long scored both gaols as Beer Albion drew 2-2 with Thorverton. the Fisherman edged through on penalties.

Okehampton 1 Axminster Res 3

AXMINSTER Reserves bounced back from their 2-1 midweek defeat at Seaton Reserves side with a convincing 3-1 away win at Okehampton.

Axminster dominated from the early stages and it was no surprise when Adam Cowling opened the scoring after 10 mins.

The Tigers added to their tally in the 49th minute when Glen Harding opened up his account for this year.

When Okehampton did press forward Axminster's back four was resolute, marshalled by the impressive Richard Challis.

Cowling finished off a superb passing move ten minutes from timeto seal the win.

Okehampton did pull one back near the final whistle, but the result was never in doubt.

Newtown 2 Axmouth United 2

AXMOUTH travelled to Newtown with high hopes having already beaten the hosts last week 7-1. However, facing a team that made several changes from a week ago and with a couple of enforced changes themselves a tougher test was expected.

A tightly contested half ended 0-0.

Reece Hales broke the deadlock in the 48th minute after Charlie Clarke had been felled by the Newton 'keeper who surprisingly escaped a red-card.

Hales added a second soon after following good work from Matt Ellis.

With Axmouth looking in complete control the game was turned on it's head in the 66th minute when the Ax keeper brought down a Newtown player and this time the referee produced a red card!

Newtown levelled soon after but th teams ended all-square at 2-2

'Disappointing' was Axmouth manager Laurie Forino's thoughts afterwards, he said:'We took control from the break and I felt we would win quite cosily until the card decision.

The only complaint is the inconsistency with the two decisions as both were last men taking down a player through on goal so I can't see how one is sent off and the other doesn't even get booked."

MIDWEEK NEWS

FENITON won 3-2 away at Thorverton last Wednesday Charlie Selley (2, 1 pen) and Andrew Jones repeated their goalscoring exploits from the previous week's identical score line at Exmouth Amateurs.

Fenny player-manger Mark Kingdon has been pleased with his teams start to the season, he said:"The squad has been boosted by the return of Mark Simic and Andrew Jones from Exmouth Town and also the signings of Matt Hesford and James Berry so we are excited about our return to the local top flight.

"The club has been kindly sponsored by Jon Capon of Otter Windows who will this year be providing new strips for the first and second teams as well as use of a mini-bus for away games."

Meanwhlle Mark Hancock and Dan Norman scored the goals as Seaton Town beat neighbours Axminster Town Reserves 2-1 in Wednesday's division four local-derby at Colyford Road.

Adam Cowling replied for the Tigers.

SEATON with Linda Stone

BANK Holiday Monday is traditionally when Seaton Bowls play a special game to raise money for the Carnival.

This year the weather intervened and it had to be called off. However, we have rearranged this event to take place on Friday, September 14th at 2pm.

Seaton "A" maintained their position at the top of Division 5 of the Over 60's league with a 51-28 victory over Madeira "C" at Exmouth on Wednesday.

Top triple was David Ford, Keith Miles & Roger Woolland.

On Thursday three ladies triples travelled to Axminster to play a friendly game. Seaton won by one shot in a very close match. Seaton's top triple was S. Pike, A. Carter & B. Thompson.

Six mixed rinks travelled to Teignmouth for a friendly game. the hosts won 113-89 - Seaton's top rink was L. Hurley-Smith, S. Pike, M. Follenfant & J. Allison.

Finally, on Saturday Bridport played their return match at Seaton. This was again a close fought match with Bridport winning by just two shots 113–111. Seaton's top rink was A. Joyner, A. Johnson, D. Ford & M. Johnson who won 26 -7.
